

SUSPECT CASES.

They Will Go Before the Franklin County Grand Jury at Frankfort, Ky.

CIRCUIT COURT IS NOW IN SESSION.

Subpoenas Already Issued For a Number of Important Witnesses to Appear Before the Grand Jury.

No Indictments Expected to Be Returned Before the Latter Part of the Week—Change of Venue Will Be Asked For.

Frankfort, Ky., April 2.—The convening of the April term of the Franklin county circuit court, with Judge Cantrill sitting, marks the beginning of the final legal proceedings against those charged with complicity in the assassination of the late William Goebel and on this account makes it the most important in the history of criminal trials in this state in many years.

The first session of the court will be taken up mainly with preliminary matters. Judge Cantrill's charge to the grand jury, always vigorous and comprehensive, is looked forward to with more than ordinary interest.

The grand jury will probably get in working order Tuesday and of course the assassination case will be the first matter taken up. It is understood that Commonwealth's Attorney Franklin, who will conduct the prosecution on the part of the state, has had subpoenas issued for numerous important witnesses in rotation and others will be issued as soon as the court gets down to work.

The names of the suspects who have already been arrested and whose cases have been referred to the grand jury for investigation are Republican Secretary of State Caleb Powers, Judge W. L. Hazell, of Lakeland; Henry Youtsey, of Frankfort; J. L.
Sutton, of Williamsburg; Harland Whittaker, of Butler county; Silas Jones, of Whitley county, and John Davis, of Frankfort. Warrants are also out for ex-Secretary of State Charles Finley, Capt. John L. Powers, of Knox county, and "Tallow Dick" Combs, colored, who have not yet been arrested.

It is not probable any indictments will be returned before the latter part of the week at the earliest, and if the prosecution makes good its claims, the investigation will involve a large number of others against whom indictments will be returned.
The general impression prevails that none of the trials will come up at the present term and it is understood that the defense probably in every case will move for a change of venue to some other county on account of the heated state of public feeling here.

BROOKS' MURDERERS SETTLED

The Chinese Government Ends the Controversy Arising Over the Killing of a Missionary.

Peking, April 2.—The Chinese government has "settled" the controversy arising out of the murder on December 3 last of Rev. Mr. Brooks, of the church missionary society on the following terms: Two of the murderers will be beheaded; one imprisoned for life, one for ten years, another for two years; a memorial chapel will be erected upon the site of the murder and a tablet will be placed in Canterbury cathedral, England, at the expense of the Chinese government.

Rev. Mr. Brooks at the time of his murder was stationed at Ping Yin, in the province of Shan-Tung. He was captured in that vicinity and killed by members of the seditious society known as "Boxers," who had been very active in destroying villages and slaughtering native Christians. The governor of the province has dispatched a force of cavalry to the scene of disturbance, but the soldiers arrived too late to save the life of Mr. Brooks.

Turkey Settles Russia's Demands.

Constantinople, April 2.—The Ottoman government has addressed a note to the Russian embassy declaring that in the event of the Porte not constructing railway lines in the Black sea districts bounded by railways already conceded to others then concessions will be granted to Russia. It is considered that the Porte in this way settles the Russian demands in the premises.

Schooner and Cargo Lost.

Vineyard Haven, Mass., April 2.— The schooner Abraham Richardson, of Bangor, from South Amboy for Rockland, Me., was sunk by a collision with the barge Alaska off East Chop, Vineyard Sound. All hands were saved, but the schooner is a total loss. She had a cargo of 213 tons of coal.

Ex-Senator Sawyer Buried.

Oshkosh, Wis., April 2.—Former Senator Philetus Sawyer was buried here. The funeral was the most imposing and impressive ever held in this city. The services were marked by the greatest simplicity, in accordance with the wish of the deceased.

Torpedo Boat Boiler Explodes.

Cherbourg, France, April 2.—The boiler of a French torpedo boat exploded during forced draught trials and five of the crew were terribly burned. One died and another, unable to bear the agony, jumped into the sea and was drowned.

FINAL DISPOSAL.

Fate of the Porto Rican Bill Will Be Decided By the Senate
This Week.

THE BILL WILL PROBABLY BE PASSED

The Quay Resolution is Coming Up in the Senate But Not Likely to Be Disposed Of.

The Philippine Legislation Will Then Be the Unfinished Business on the Senate Calendar—Programme of the House.

Washington, April 2.—The senate will vote upon the Porto Rican bill Tuesday at 4 o'clock. All but two of the committee amendments have been agreed to by the senate. These two relate to a delegation in congress and to citizenship. The friends of the bill count upon its passage by a handsome majority, but it is now expected that seven republican votes will be cast against it, the seven comprising Senators Davis, Hoar, Mason, Nelson, Proctor, Simon and Wellinton. Senator McHenry (dem.) and some independent senators will vote for the measure but until the exact number of such votes is known the majority for the bill can not be predicted.

The taking of the vote on the Porto Rican bill on Tuesday will displace the Quay resolution, which was set for that day, and Senator Chandler, chairman of the committee on elections, has given notice that he will postpone calling it up until Wednesday. The committee will adjourn the Clark hearing in order to give its attention to the Quay resolution on Wednesday, but as it is not expected that the latter matter can be disposed of in one day, it is probable that the necessity for going on with the Clark case Wednesday will cause another postponement of the Quay resolution.
There are several speeches to be made on the Quay case, and there is quite a noticeable disposition on the part of some senators still further to postpone the vote on it. Senator Penrose, however, announces his purpose to press the consideration as rapidly as possible after it is once taken up.

The Quay resolution is subject to displacement by appropriation bills, conference reports and the Spooner resolution of the temporary government of the Philippines. The Philippine resolution will be made the unfinished business after the vote is taken on Porto Rico, and it will give way to the Alaskan code measure.
After that it will divide the time with appropriation bills and conference reports. No prolonged debate is expected on the Philippine resolution, owing to the fact that it is considered a temporary matter, and for the further reason that the Philippine policy has received considerable attention in connection with Porto Rico.

The committee on order of business is not yet thoroughly decided what subject to take up after the disposal of the Philippine resolution. There is strong pressure to secure first place for the shipping subsidy bill, and at present the indications are somewhat favorable to that measure. The Nie-aragua canal bill is also pressing for first place, and Senator Morgan expresses strong hope of success.

Programme of the House.

Washington, April 2.—The programme in the house this week is fully mapped out. On Tuesday under a special order adopted some time ago the house will enter upon the consideration of the bill to provide a civil government for Hawaii. By the terms of the order the general debate upon the bill will continue Tuesday and Wednesday and on Thursday the bill will be read for amendment, under the five minute rule. The final vote will be taken at 4 o'clock on Thursday. Friday will be devoted to private pension legislation and Saturday has been set aside for paying tribute to the memory of the late Richard P. Bland, of Missouri.

EXPLORERS RETURN.

The Borchgrevink Expedition Reports Having Located the South Magnetic Pole.

Wellington, New Zealand, April 2.— The exploring steamer Southern Cross, bearing Mr. C. E. Borchgrevink and the survivors of the South Polar expedition fitted out in 1895 by Sir George Newnes, of London, has just arrived here. Mr. Borchgrevink reports that the magnetic pole has been located. Mr. N. Hansen, one of the geologists who started with the expedition, died on the voyage.

The Borchgrevink expedition left Hobart, Tasmania, for the Antarctic region on December 19, 1898. During the latter part of February, 1899, the members landed from the Southern Cross near Cape Adair, Victrolaland, it having been arranged that the steamer should leave them there with full equipment of every kind, and should return for them early in 1900.
Mr. Borchgrevink's party consisted of nine, including himself. Lieut. W.
Colbeck, R. N. B., was selected as first magnetic observer, to be assisted by Mr. Louis Bernacchi; Mr. N. Hansen and Mr. Hugh Evans were chosen as zoologists and Dr. Klovestad as medical officer. Mr. Fournigal was general utility man and cook. With these went two natives of Finland to look after 90 dogs. Enormous supplies of provisions were laid in.

INTO AN AMBUSH.

A British Convoy, Under Command of Col. Broadwood, Fall Into a Boar Trap.

ALL CAPTURED WITH THEIR GUNS

English Forces Garrisoning Thaba Nehu Were Compelled to Abandon It During the Night.

Gen. Colville's Division Shelling the Boer Camp Near Bloemfontein—Boers Expecting Great Things of Their New Commander.

London, April 2.—The following dispatch has been received from Bushman Kop, dated Saturday, March 31:

"The British force commanded by Col. Broadwood, consisting of the Tenth Hussars, Household Cavalry, two horse batteries and a force of mounted infantry under Col. Pilcher, which had been garrisoning Thaba Nehu, was obliged, in consequence of the near approach of a large force of Boers to leave last night.

"Col. Broadwood marched to the Bloemfontein waterworks, south of the Modder, where he encamped at 4 this morning. At early dawn the camp was shelled by the enemy from a near point. Col. Broadwood sent off a convoy with the batteries while the rest of the force remained to act as rear guard.

"The convoy arrived at a deep spruit, where the Boers were concealed, and the entire body walked into ambush and was captured, together with six guns. The loss of life was not great since most of the British had walked into the trap before a shot was fired.

"Gen. Colville's division which left Bloemfontein early this morning arrived here at noon and he is now shelling the Boers."

Lord Roberts' own report of the affair, if yet received by the war office, has not yet been published and no account of the affair is available to the public except the dispatch from Bushman Kop. Nothing can be said, therefore, regarding the exact extent of the British misfortune. Evidently Col. Broadwood thought it necessary to retreat in haste from Thaba Nehu, as he marched all through Friday night, apparently followed by a considerable force of the enemy. The convoy and guns had to pass through a deep spruit which the Boers had occupied. Six of 12 guns, comprising two batteries, all the wagons and, it is feared, many men, fell into the hands of Boers, whose daring, displayed so near Bloemfontein, shows that they are rapidly recovering heart after their recent reverses.

The hope is expressed here that Gen. Colville will recover the convoy and guns but this is hardly likely in such a difficult country, and it is probable that the next news will be that, after a stiff fight, Gen. Colville has extricated Col. Broadwood from his difficult position, but failed to retrieve the disaster.

Severe criticisms are heard regarding the renewal of the old mistake of under rating the Boers and the absence of proper precaution. No doubt the affair will revive Boer hopes and inspire confidence among the enemy at a critical moment.

Great things are expected by the Boers of the new commander-in-chief, Gen. Botha, who has made his reputation wholly during the present campaign. Foreign officers serving with the Boers have expressed surprise at his clever tactics.

The proof of continuing Boer activity in the Free State will compel greater circumspection on the part of the British and will probably delay the march of Lord Roberts northward.

Detailed accounts of the fight at Karee Siding estimate the Boer forces variously from 3,000 to 5,000 men.
Brabant's Horse occupied Wepener last Thursday unopposed.

Lord Methuen has issued the following notification at Kimberley:
"I have received instructions that if any disturbance occurs west of the Vaal river my force is to return and punish the rebels immediately."

SCHOOL BUILDING BURNED.

Two Firemen Killed, Three Others Injured and Two Schoolboys Were Badly Hurt.

Owosso, Mich., April 2.—Two firemen were killed by falling walls in a fire which destroyed the Central high school of this city. Three other firemen were seriously injured and two pupils of the school were quite badly hurt.

The dead are: Fred Ross and Frank Tucker, firemen.
The injured are: Will Ross, Zene Ross, Edward Freet, firemen; Frank Davis and Solomon Vogel, school boys.

The fire caught from a burning chimney, which spread through the hot air ducts to all parts of the building. The school house was on a hill and the engines were unable to furnish sufficient force to render the fire department much use. A portion of the walls fell unexpectedly, carrying firemen Ross and Tucker down to the basement with the debris. The other firemen who fell with the walls were badly bruised and crushed, but are expected to recover. The building was valued at $125,000; insurance, $40,000.

BOTH NOTED CROOKS.

Two Men Arrested in Connection With the Robbery of a New York Restaurant.

New York, April 2.—Henry Russell and Sid Yennie, alias Henry Ferguson, who claim to be a speculator and a salesman respectively, have been arrested on suspicion of being connected with the robbery of Healy's restaurant at Columbus avenue and 66th street on Monday last. On that day a number of well-dressed men in couples went to Healy's restaurant to dine. After the meal one of the men attracted the attention of the cashier while another crawled into where the safe stood and stole $700. All the men had disappeared before the robbery was discovered.

Sunday the waiters in Healy's identified Russell as one of the men. Although it may not be possible for the police to fasten this robbery on either of the prisoners, the arrests were of importance, for the two men caught are well-known criminals, and Russell is wanted as being a fugitive from justice, being one of those who escaped from Ludlow Street jail on the memorable night of July 4, 1895.

After his escape from the jail Russell and Joe Kiloran and Charles Allen, companions in his flight from Ludlow street, went to Europe together. There the party split up, Kiloran and Allen joining hands with Russell united his fortunes with those of George Williams and Amelia Kill, two continental criminals. Not long afterward Russell was arrested in Belgium for robbing a post office and was sent to prison for five years. He was liberated about three months ago and came to the United States.

Sid Yennie is scarcely a less important crook than his fellow prisoner.
He has just been released from the state prison at Columbus, O., after serving a five year sentence for a robbery committed by him in company with George Carson, a noted burglar and sneak thief.

Russell, who is a son-in-law of Bill Vosburg, is wanted by the United States authorities for post office robberies and a reward of $1,000 was long ago offered for his apprehension. In-case the police fail to connect Russell with the Healy robbery he will be turned over to the United States authorities.

SHOT HIS BROTHER-IN-LAW.

Harboring Imaginary Wrongs, an Insane Man Starts in to Kill an Entire Family.

Kansas City, Mo., April 2.—Harboring imaginary wrongs, John W. W.
McKimm, aged 29 years, shot and killed Dr. B. F. Shaw, his brother-in-law, as the latter sat reading the Sunday school lesson to his 5-year-old daughter. Shaw died instantly. Mc-Kimm, who had been an inmate of a sanitarium, and is believed to be insane, threatened to kill the other five members of the family, and was only restrained after a struggle.

Dr. Shaw was a widower. His mother-in-law, Mrs. McKimm, had cared for his children and his wife until she died. As was his custom, he spent Sunday at the McKimm house at 1517 Forest avenue. The family had eaten dinner. Shaw seated himself in a chair in the parlor and, with his child before him on the floor, was reading the Sunday school lesson to her. Mc-Kimm, as it developed later, had gone directly to his room from the table and written a rambling statement in which he stated that he had not been treated rightly, and that he intended wiping out the entire family, consisting of Dr. Shaw and his children, his mother, two brothers and a sister.
Then, descending to the parlor, he slipped up behind Shaw and, placing the revolver against the latter, fired.
Dr. Shaw never moved and died before the family could reach his side.

As the other members of the family came running to the scene, Mc-Kimm coolly raised his revolver to fire at the first who appeared. Before he could fire a second time he was overpowered by his two brothers and taken to the station. There the murderer refused to talk and appeared unconcerned.

The Shaws and McKimm's came to Missouri from Pennsylvania 15 years ago. Dr. Shaw married Miss McKimm at Lathrop, Mo. He graduated from the University medical college in 1899 and was prominent in his profession.
McKimm has been considered of unsound mind for several years and was discharged from a local sanitarium two years ago as cured. Recently, however, he had acted queerly. The McKimm's were well to do.

Saloon Keeper Missing.

Bellefontaine, O., April 2.—William Lowry, a prominent liquor dealer of Detroit, Mich., who has been conducting a liquor emporium here, has mysteriously disappeared. His saloon and property were attached by Julius Notham & Co., of Ft. Wayne, Ind., and other creditors. Lowry was thought to be wealthy.

Miners Return to Work.

Arnot, Pa., April 2.—The miners who struck last Wednesday returned to work after being assured that the company would keep all agreements made with the miners at the termination of the former strike, which continued 11 months.

Death of a Chicago Broker.
